A Valley Full of Art

Carrying on a tradition going back 20 years, Visions Artists present their Studio Tour that takes you to all parts of the Cowichan Valley. This free, self-guided tour allows you to meet the artists and artisans, view their studios and personally choose the exquisite things that touch your soul and heart.

1 Harold Allanson Watercolour Artist
Unit 105-1533, Joan Ave., Crofton
250-324-0201
hallanson@shaw.ca www.haroldallanson.com

Harold's realistic watercolours are representative of his life experiences and observations, often depicting working friends, people he's met, their lives and their jobs. The west Coast of BC where he lives, the ranch lands of the interior where he grew up, and those thirty-five years spent as a long haul trucker provides him with a firsthand knowledge for his paintings.

Hours: Open during studio tour and year round by appointment, often you can find Harold working in the studio so please feel free to drop in.
Unit 105 is a commercial space beneath the condo complex on the corner of Joan Ave. and Queen St., half block south of the Crofton-Vesuvius Ferry to Salt Spring Island.

2 Neil Fatin Photographer / Photographic Artist
7833 Atlin Place, Crofton
250-324-8101
Cell: 250-208-0833
fatin.foto@shaw.ca
www.neilfatinphotoart.com

An award winning Photographic Artist producing images that uses photography as a base and then employing a creative approach to result in a different and engaging final image to present to you the viewer. Come visit the images of Photography and Beyond in the idyllic setting of a beautifully landscaped 1.6 acre garden.

Hours: Open during the Studio Tour and year round by appointment.
From Crofton, south on Osborne Bay Rd., right (west) onto Tatlo Rd. and west onto Atlin Place. Studio at end of road.

3 Lyndsay Hunley Potter
6601 Norcross Road, Duncan 250-748-7198
lyndsayhunley@gmail.com

Lyndsay's pottery has a West Coast or country look through colour or design with an emphasis on functional uses. The wheel-thrown pottery is a medium fired clay and may be used safely in the dishwasher, oven and microwave. Dishes are designed for years of daily use in the home.
